

SERVICE
MANUAL*UMA-1000
STEREO MAIN AMPLIFIER

PANEL FEATURES

Designation and functionINSCRIPTION

- ①. Mains key POWER
With this key you switch the final amplifier on or off, respectively
- ②. Display "Protective Circuit On" PROTECTION
When this message is illuminated the unit is either not yet ready for operation or there is a malfunction.
- ③. Peak Value Display PEAK METER
This display is lit when the respective channel's output has reached its full (peak) power.
- ④. Mains indication POWER ON
This display is shown when the unit is switched on.
- ⑤. Turning Knob for Speaker Selection SPEAKERS
With this knob you select the desired pair of speakers.
- ⑥. Attenuator ATTENUATOR
With these controls you can decrease the input sensitivity of the respective channel by up to 20 dB.
- ⑦. Speaker Screw Terminals A SPEAKERS A
You connect your main pair of speaker boxes to these clamped connection outlet.
- ⑧. Speaker Screw Terminals B SPEAKERS B
To these clamped connection outlet you can connect an additional pair of speaker boxes.

- ⑨. Input Sockets INPUT R/L
Connect these sockets to the outputs of your pre-amplifier or equalizer (if you want to loop this in between pre-amplifier and final amplifier).
- ⑩. Selector Switch Bridging Function MONO/STEREO
If you want to use for your unit as a mono output transformer you set this switch to the position MONO.
- ⑪. Fuse Bracket 230...240V
If the unit does not function at all (that is when also the display 4 does not light), you check the fuses in these brackets.
- ⑫. Fuse Bracket for Socket 13 AC OUTLET FUSE
In case a unit connected to the outlet 13 does not function check the fuses in this bracket.
- ⑬. Socket for an Additional Device UNSWITCHED 550W MAX
To this socket you can connect another HiFi device with a power consumption of a maximum of 550 watts.
- ⑭. Mains Cable
The plug of this cable must be plugged into a mains socket of 230V/50Hz.

BLOCK DIAGRAM

SCHEMATIC DIAGRAM

WIRING DIAGRAM

